

Prayer Vigil at the Home Office for Victims of Global Migration January 2024

Leader invites a few moments of silence and contemplation before the 'barbed wire icon'.

Opening Prayers

Leader We pray for those who will spend time during our service handing out leaflets to the public. We ask that our message will reach the hearts of people of good will on this street today.

Creator Spirit, wellspring of our lives, as the refreshing rain falls on the just and unjust alike,

All Refresh us with your mercy, you who know our own injustice.

Leader As the stream flows steadily on, defying all the odds of stone and water,

All Flow over every boundary and border that separates us from each other.

Leader As the waters of our baptism washed us and welcomed us,

All Renew us now in newness of life and unity of love.

Hymn – “When I Needed a Neighbour”

When I needed a neighbour, Were you there, were you there? When I needed a neighbour, were you there?	When I needed a shelter, Were you there, were you there? When I needed a shelter, were you there? R
(Refrain:) And the creed and the colour And the name won't matter, Were you there?	When I needed a healer, Were you there, were you there? When I needed a healer, were you there? R
I was hungry and thirsty, Were you there, were you there? I was hungry and thirsty, were you there? R	Wherever you travel, I'll be there, I'll be there. Wherever you travel, I'll be there. R
I was cold, I was naked, Were you there, were you there? I was cold, I was naked, were you there? R	Sydney Carter Words © 1965, 1969 Stainer &amp; Bell Ltd

Psalm 118

A I find no fault with your sacrifices,
your offerings are always before me.
I do not ask more bullocks from your farms,
nor goats from among your herds.

B But how can you recite my commandments
and take my covenant on your lips,
You who despise my law
and throw my words to the winds.

A You do this, and should I keep silence?
 Do you think I am like you?
 A sacrifice of thanksgiving honours me
 and I will show God's salvation to the upright.

Prayers of Repentance

Leader: Loving Jesus, as a child, and in fear of your life, you were forced to seek refuge in Egypt. You know what it is like to be rejected, and to be an outsider. You call us to love our neighbours as ourselves, but we have hardened our hearts against strangers.

All: Forgive us, and help us to change.

Leader: You told us not to judge, yet we listen to rumours and fail to check facts. We hear what is best for us and not what is good for those in need.

All: Forgive us, and help us to change.

Leader: You said we must welcome everyone, those speaking different languages and with different beliefs and cultures, but we have turned our backs on opportunities to widen our experience. We have shut out foreigners from our communities.

All: Forgive us, and help us to change.

Leader: Today we are called more than ever to welcome those fleeing from war. Open our hearts, and those of our neighbourhood, of our city, of our country and of our continent, to those who need our shelter.

All: Forgive us, and help us to change.

The List of the Dead

The names and details which follow are those of people who have died trying to obtain sanctuary in Europe or the UK. We read them so as to honour their lives and mourn the injustice of their deaths. Many are unknown, but as Pope Francis said, 'Every one has a name, a face and a story'. Today we mark those who died in January 2023.

After each entry, Leader says: Lord have mercy.

All respond: Christ, have mercy.

Date	Details
1/1	One person died in a traffic accident on Egnatia Highway in Northern Greece; 3 others were injured.
2/1	8 people drowned in a shipwreck off the coast of Lybia on the way to Europe. 49 were rescued, including Abubacarr Leigh, a man from Gambia, who later died of unknown causes in the custody of the Lybian Coast Guard.
3/1	A 29-year-old Sudanese man threw himself in front of a train in Calais; he waved goodbye to a local volunteer from the tracks.
3/1	Tony Moses Ovir, a 33-year-old from Nigeria, died from suicide after 3 weeks in Lagnon reception centre in Bernex, Switzerland. He was confused and disorientated.
6/1	1 person from Morocco drowned after an inflatable boat overturned off Idi Ifni, Morocco; their body was found off Mirleft 7 days later. 24 were rescued.
6/1	A man and woman, both aged 38, and Sara, a girl one and half years old, all from Ivory Coast, drowned when a boat, 7m long, sank off Lampedusa on the way from Sfax, Tunisia. 32 rescued.

Hymn – “Wait for the Lord”

by Communauté de Taizé

Wait for the Lord, whose day is near.

Wait for the Lord: keep watch, take heart! (x3)

Reading

(Matthew 2:13-23) The angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream and said, "Rise, take the child and his mother, flee to Egypt, and stay there until I tell you. Herod is going to search for the child to destroy him." Joseph rose and took the child and his mother by night and departed for Egypt. He stayed there until the death of Herod, that what the Lord had said through the prophet might be fulfilled, "Out of Egypt I called my son."

When Herod realized that he had been deceived by the magi, he became furious. He ordered the massacre of all the boys in Bethlehem and its vicinity two years old and under, in accordance with the time he had ascertained from the magi. Then was fulfilled what had been said through Jeremiah the prophet:

"A voice was heard in Ramah,
sobbing and loud lamentation;
Rachel weeping for her children,
and she would not be consoled,
since they were no more."

When Herod had died, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt and said, "Rise, take the child and his mother and go to the land of Israel, for those who sought the child's life are dead." He rose, took the child and his mother, and went to the land of Israel. But when he heard that Archelaus was ruling over Judea in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go back there. And because he had been warned in a dream, he departed for the region of Galilee. He went and dwelt in a town called Nazareth, so that what had been spoken through the prophets might be fulfilled, "He shall be called a Nazorean."

Reflection

Prayers of Intercession

Everyone present reads in turn. All say the response in bold.

We pray for the thousands of men, women and children, known and unknown, who set out to seek safety and a better life in Europe, but who were drowned in the Mediterranean, the Aegean Sea or the English Channel. O Lord hear our prayer, and let our cry come unto you.

We pray for migrants who have met hostility or violence from authorities or vigilantes. We pray for those pushed back into the sea, and those forced into the desert. O Lord hear our prayer, and let our cry come unto you.

We pray for all those seeking sanctuary in the UK who depend on its adhering to the European Convention for Human Rights, and pray that our government will respect the agreement that we helped to draw up over 70 years ago. O Lord hear our prayer, and let our cry come unto you.

We pray for the former residents of the camp in Calais and for those who remain there. We pray for the protection of all people in refugee camps and the communities they build. O Lord hear our prayer, and let our cry come unto you.

We pray for refugees arriving in the UK and being placed in detention in poor conditions at arrival, and those made homeless on being granted asylum. We pray for their mental and physical well-being and for the recognition of their right to decent housing. O Lord hear our prayer, and let our cry come unto you.

We pray for the comforting of all who have lost loved ones in the course of fleeing from their home country, or who have experienced the trauma of watching others die. O Lord hear our prayer, and let our cry come unto you.

We pray for a resolution to the conflicts and oppression which are forcing so many to flee in desperation, and the realisation of the right of people to remain in their homes. We pray for the people of Iran, Afghanistan, Iraq, Syria, Eritrea, Sudan, and Ukraine, and especially at this time for all the people of Palestine. O Lord hear our prayer, and let our cry come unto you.

We pray for the end of the arms trade and militarism, which aggravate and sponsor these conflicts. O Lord hear our prayer, and let our cry come unto you.

We pray for those who are fleeing the effects of climate change, with rising sea levels, drought, flood or crop failure, yet who have caused little or no damage to our climate; for those who make decisions about compensation, and those who continue to exploit the earth for profit. We ask forgiveness for our complicity in this. O Lord hear our prayer, and let our cry come unto you.

We pray for the safety and success of those serving aboard the rescue ships: the Sea Watch 3, the Life Support, the Aurora, the Imara, the Rise Above, the Nadir, the Geo Barents, the Wind Express, the Ocean Viking, the Open Arms, the Aita Mari, the Trotamar III, and others; and of the volunteers of the Alarm Phone, and the reception teams on the Greek and Italian islands. O Lord hear our prayer, and let our cry come unto you.

We pray that you inspire compassion in all those who work with migrants on behalf of governments, and that they recognise all those they come across as their brothers and sisters. O Lord hear our prayer, and let our cry come unto you.

We pray that you create in all citizens the strength and resilience to continue to resist unjust immigration laws and to support one another in this struggle. O Lord hear our prayer, and let our cry come unto you.

Leader invites those present to add other prayers if they wish.

Act of Faith and Commitment

Iona Abbey Worship Book 2001

Leader: Let us affirm our faith.

We believe that God is present
In the dark before dawn;
In the waiting and uncertainty
Where fear and courage join hands,
Conflict and caring link arms,
And the sun rises over barbed wire.
We believe in a with-us God
Who sits down in our midst
To share our humanity.
We affirm a faith
That takes us beyond the safe place:

Into action, into vulnerability
And into the streets.
We commit ourselves to work for change
And put ourselves on the line;
To bear responsibility, take risks,
Live powerfully and face humiliation;
To stand with those on the edge;
To choose life
And be used by the Spirit
For God's new community of hope.
Amen.

Hymn – "Amazing Grace"

Amazing grace (how sweet the sound)
That saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found,
Was blind but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
And grace my fears relieved;
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed!

Through many dangers, toils, and snares
I have already come:
'Tis grace has brought me safe thus far,
And grace will lead me home.

When we've been there ten thousand years,
Bright, shining as the sun,
We've no less days to sing God's praise,
Than when we first begun.

Amazing grace (how sweet the sound)
That saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found,
Was blind but now I see.
