

JUSTICE & PEACE E-BULLETIN

January 2024

Welcome to the e-Bulletin from the Westminster Justice and Peace Commission. Please send Events for inclusion to justiceandpeace@rcdow.org.uk. The deadline for the next e-Bulletin is 29 January 2024.

Colette Joyce, Westminster Justice and Peace Co-ordinator writes:

"Blessed are the peacemakers," Pope Francis said as he spoke to a gathering of Ambassadors to the Holy See at his annual 'State of the World' address on 8th January.

The concerns shared by the Pope could aptly be said to summarise the agenda for Justice and Peace in Westminster in 2024 and for every Christian and person of good will.

In his address he referred to the escalating conflicts worldwide as a "third world war fought piecemeal". He stressed, "This is not the way to resolve disputes between peoples; those disputes are only aggravated and cause suffering for everyone." Rather, he urged the need for disarmament, asserting that weapons do not have a deterrent value but rather encourage their use. "How many lives could be saved with the resources that today are misdirected to weaponry?" he asked.

Instead, he urged that humankind should work to tackle the root causes of conflict and redirect resources to health care, food security and tackling the climate crisis. "Here I reiterate my proposal that a global fund be established to finally eliminate hunger and to promote a sustainable development of the entire planet," he said.

The December E-Bulletin included a timely welcome to James Holland, the new interfaith worker for the Diocese, as Pope Francis upheld the role of dialogue as a crucial element in the pursuit of peace. "The path to peace also passes through interreligious dialogue, which before all else requires the protection of religious freedom and respect for minorities."

As we start the new year aware of so many struggles, conflicts and challenges, at home and abroad, we take heart from keeping our eyes fixed on Christ. Our faith gives us all the resources we need to meet them, as the Synod process continues throughout the universal Catholic Church and we embark on a year of prayer in preparation for the Jubilee Holy Year in 2025. This year we aim to focus on formation and supporting one another with the encouragement we need to persist faithfully in the work of justice and peace for the long haul. This provides me with the perfect opportunity also to thank the Parish and Chaplaincy Contacts, both those who have served for many years and those who have recently come forward as volunteers to be the liaison between their communities and the Commission. Do find out who is serving in this role in your parish or local area and give them your support so that we can increase our capacity to respond together across the Diocese to the many needs of the world facing us today. <https://westminsterjusticeandpeace.org/parish-contacts/>
