

Prayer Vigil at the Home Office for Victims of Global Migration April 2024

Leader invites a few moments of silence and contemplation before the icon.

Opening Prayers

Leader We pray for those who will spend time during our service handing out leaflets to the public. We ask that our message will reach the hearts of people of good will on this street today.

Creator Spirit, wellspring of our lives, as the refreshing rain falls on the just and unjust alike,

All Refresh us with your mercy, you who know our own injustice.

Leader As the stream flows steadily on, defying all the odds of stone and water,

All Flow over every boundary and border that separates us from each other.

Leader As the waters of our baptism washed us and welcomed us,

All Renew us now in newness of life and unity of love.

Hymn – “I Come Like a Beggar”

I come like a beggar
with a gift in my hand,
I come like a beggar
with a gift in my hand.

(R) By the hungry I will feed you,
By the poor I make you rich,
By the broken I will mend you,
Tell me, which one is which?

I come like a prisoner
to bring you a key,
I come like a prisoner
to bring you a key. R

The need of another
is the gift that I bring,
The need of another
is the gift that I bring. R

Take the wine that I bring you
and the bread that I break,
Take the wine that I bring you
and the bread that I break. R

Prayers of Repentance

Leader: Loving Jesus, as a child in fear of your life, you were forced to seek refuge in Egypt. You know what it is like to be rejected, and to be an outsider. You call us to love our neighbours as ourselves, but we have hardened our hearts against strangers.

All: Forgive us, and help us to change.

Leader: You told us not to judge, yet we listen to rumours and fail to check facts. We hear what is best for us and not what is good for those in need.

All: Forgive us, and help us to change.

Leader: You said we must welcome everyone, those speaking different languages and with different beliefs and cultures, but we have turned our backs on opportunities to widen our experience. We have shut out foreigners from our communities.

All: Forgive us, and help us to change.

Leader: Today we are called more than ever to welcome those fleeing from war. Open our hearts, and those of our neighbourhood, of our city, of our country and of our continent, to those who need our shelter.

All: Forgive us, and help us to change.

The List of the Dead

The names and details which follow are those of people who have died trying to obtain sanctuary in Europe or the UK. We read them so as to honour their lives and mourn the injustice of their deaths. Many are unknown, but as Pope Francis said, 'Every one has a name, a face and a story'. Today we mark those who died in April 2023.

After each entry, Leader says: Lord have mercy.

All respond: Christ, have mercy.

	Date	Details

Hymn – “Wait for the Lord”

by Communauté de Taizé

Wait for the Lord, whose day is near.

Wait for the Lord: keep watch, take heart! (x3)

Reading

(Today's reading from the Revised Common Lectionary)

(1 John 3:10-16) This is how we know who the children of God are and who the children of the devil are: Anyone who does not do what is right is not God's child, nor is anyone who does not love their brother and sister. For this is the message you heard from the beginning: We should love one another. Do not be like Cain, who belonged to the evil one and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his own actions were evil and his brother's were righteous. Do not be surprised, my brothers and sisters, if the world hates you. We know that we have passed from death to life, because we love each other. Anyone who does not love remains in death. Anyone who hates a brother or sister is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life residing in him. This is how we know what love is: Jesus Christ laid down his life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for our brothers and sisters.

Reflection

Prayers of Intercession

Everyone present reads in turn. All say the response in bold.

We pray for the thousands of men, women and children, known and unknown, who set out to seek safety and a better life in Europe, but who were drowned in the Mediterranean, the Atlantic, the Aegean Sea, or the English Channel, and for those who mourn them. O Lord hear our prayer, and let our cry come unto you.

We pray for migrants who have met hostility or violence from authorities or vigilantes. We pray for those pushed back into the sea, and those forced into the desert. O Lord hear our prayer, and let our cry come unto you.

We pray for all those seeking sanctuary in the UK who depend on its adhering to the European Convention for Human Rights, and pray that our government will respect the agreement that we helped to draw up over 70 years ago. O Lord hear our prayer, and let our cry come unto you.

We pray for the protection of all people in refugee camps in Calais and elsewhere and the communities they build. O Lord hear our prayer, and let our cry come unto you.

We pray for refugees arriving in the UK and being placed in detention in poor conditions at arrival, and those made homeless on being granted asylum. We pray for their mental and physical well-being and for the recognition of their right to decent housing. We pray for Ibrahima Bah and all others imprisoned through unjust laws. O Lord hear our prayer, and let our cry come unto you.

We pray for a resolution to the conflicts and oppression which are forcing so many to flee in desperation, for the end of the arms trade, and the realisation of the right of people to remain in their homes. We pray for the people of Iran, Afghanistan, Iraq, Syria, Eritrea, Sudan, Ukraine, and Palestine. O Lord hear our prayer, and let our cry come unto you.

We pray for those who are fleeing the effects of climate change, with rising sea levels, drought, flood or crop failure, yet who have caused little or no damage to our climate; for those who make decisions about compensation, and those who continue to exploit the earth for profit. We ask forgiveness for our complicity in this. O Lord hear our prayer, and let our cry come unto you.

We pray for the safety and success of those serving aboard the rescue ships: the Sea Watch 3, the Life Support, the Aurora, the Imara, the Rise Above, the Nadir, the Geo Barents, the Wind Express, the Ocean Viking, the Open Arms, the Aita Mari, the Trotamar III, and others; and of the volunteers of the Alarm Phone, and the reception teams on the Greek and Italian islands. O Lord hear our prayer, and let our cry come unto you.

We pray that you inspire compassion in all those who work with migrants on behalf of governments, and that they recognise all those they come across as their brothers and sisters. O Lord hear our prayer, and let our cry come unto you.

We pray that you create in all of us the strength and resilience to resist unjust immigration laws and to support one another in this struggle. O Lord hear our prayer, and let our cry come unto you.

Leader invites those present to add other prayers if they wish.

Concluding Prayer

by the Baptist Union of Great Britain

All: God of all humanity,
When your people were enslaved and displaced
You led them to a land that they could call home.
When your people were in exile
Your promise was that one day
They would live in streets of play and laughter.
When your disciples were afraid and uncertain,
You spoke of your Father's House
With mansions and places prepared.

We pray today for all those who have no place to call home,
Hearing the heart-cry of your word
For those who are without refuge.
Where shelter is ours to offer
Grant us the will and resolve to reflect the generosity of our Creator.
Where others stand in the way of those who need safe haven
May our cry for justice never falter.
May the idols of self-interest and economic gain
Never deflect us from the ways of your Kingdom.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Hymn – "The Scottish Magnificat"

My soul is filled with joy
As I sing to God my saviour:
You have looked upon your servant,
You have visited your people.

R: *And holy is your name
Through all generations!
Everlasting is your mercy
To the people you have chosen,
And holy is your name.*

I proclaim the pow'r of God,

To the hungry you give food,
send the rich away empty.
In your mercy you are mindful of the people you have chosen. R

In your love you now fulfill
What you promised to your people.
I will praise you, Lord, my saviour,
Everlasting is your mercy. R

You do marvels for your servants;
Though you scatter the proud-hearted
And destroy the might of princes. R
